LET ME BE SPECIFIC... AVOID GEORGIA-PACIFIC

BOYCOTT THE KOCH BROTHERS' GEORGIA-PACIFIC BUILDING PRODUCTS, and help prevent them from building their GOP Dreamhouse.

Georgia-Pacific is the largest manufacturer of building materials in the U.S., including:

- Plytanium Plywood, Dry Ply Plywood, Ply-Bead
- All kinds of corrugated boxes and containers
- Various, numerous wood products, dimensional lumber and building materials
- ToughRock, FireGuard, DensArmor and DensShield Gypsum Board
- G/P Industrial Plasters (used by a lot of crafters)
- FibreStrong Rim Board
- Blue Ribbon Sub-flooring

If building, ask your contractor/carpenter to seek out NON-GEORGIA-PACIFIC products (which from my research may prove to be healthier for you anyway. It certainly will be healthier for our democracy.)

Coupon expires January 2012, when the Big Tool is recalled.

Every dollar you spend on a Georgia-Pacific product helps us build our totalitarian dreamhouse!

Boycott Smart. Boycott WalMart.

Now feel even BETTER about staying out of this store, as your money won't end up in Walker's Campaign Fund!

It's not surprising that heirs to the founder of Wal-Mart are Scott Walker backers. Wal-Mart is one of the world's most profitable corporations, generating $405 billion in revenue and $103 billion in profits in 2010. Yet, the company is notorious for using legal loopholes to avoid taxes, and depends on relationships with such "tax-cuts-for-business" governors as our own Scott Walker. You can derail the money train. Don't shop there.

Stick to Shredding Cheese... Not Our State.

BOYCOTT Sargento Cheese Products for their unsavory support of Scott Walker.

It's a cheesy deal. The Gentine family and Sargento Cheese have donated over $30,000 to Scott Walker. That's grating. You have political power...right in your shopping cart. Boycott the entire line of Sargento Cheese products.

Expiration Date: January 2012 (When the Big Cheese gets recalled)
